

SIXTY CLUB INCORPORATES.

Actors and Actresses Who Like to Share Will Build Clubhouse.

The Sixty Club, an organization of prominent actors, actresses and other theatrical folk which has been holding weekly dances throughout the winter, filed articles of incorporation yesterday in the County Clerk's office. The club's directors in the first annual meeting are: J. Fred Zimmerman, A. O. Brown, Gilbert Miller, Arch Selwyn, William Elliott, Meyer W. Livingston and John W. Runyon.

The club is organized for the purpose of "creating and maintaining a bond of communion between members of the theatrical profession connected therewith as artists, playwright, manager or producer, and to promote among its members friendly and social intercourse." The organization plans to build a clubhouse.

UPSET STOMACH, COSTIVE, BILIOUS,
CASCARETS TONIGHT—DIME A BOX

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means your stomach is sour—your liver is torpid—your bowels constipated. It isn't your stomach's fault—it isn't indigestion—it's biliousness and constipation. Try Cascarets; they sweeten the stomach, remove the sour, fermenting food and foul gases, take bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter from the bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret to-night straightens you out by morning.

Modest Girl Tells How He Wooded and Won Her With Tales of Greatness.

Gertrude Felix Bezeredy, the twenty-two-year-old daughter of Solomon Felix, a wealthy resident of Far Rockaway, and a very pretty brunette, slender and of medium height, told Supreme Court Justice Benedict in Long Island City to-day the sad story of her marriage with a handsome youth who represented himself as a wealthy Austrian count and lieutenant in the army but whom she said turned out to be an impostor and a swindler.

The girl with many signs of embarrassment, but she did not hesitate. When she had concluded Justice Benedict ordered her lawyer to hand up the order for an annulment of the marriage for which she had applied.

Miss Felix said that she met the young man representing himself as Devoe Welles Bezeredy in the summer of 1912 at an entertainment at the home of a friend and became interested in him at once. They were married the following December.

They had planned to visit Austria on their honeymoon, but on the day of their marriage the young man told her that his remittance had been delayed and they would have to postpone the trip. She persuaded her father to lend them first $500 and then another sum, and in January they sailed. In Berlin, where she had wanted to visit a wealthy uncle and aunt, her husband told her that he was no count, had never been in the army and had no more use for her now that he had got from her all the money he could. Then he abandoned her, and her relatives supplied funds for her to return home.

Here her parents made a belated investigation of the young man's record and to-day there was offered in evidence a clipping from The New York World of March 15, 1911, telling of the sentencing to Dannemora of young Bezeredy by Judge Rosalesky in General Sessions after the youth had confessed to swindling chauffeurs by posing as a count, offering them employment and making off with deposits of $75 or $100 which he demanded against the cost of their uniforms.

Mayor Says He Wants Practical Suggestions and Will Act on Them.

Mayor Mitchell this afternoon gave an audience in the City Hall to 200 homeless, jobless men who had called to ask his help to relieve the unemployed of the Greater City. The vanguard of the army of jobless marched to the City Hall in a body, headed by Benjamin C. Marsh. The parade began at the Bowery Mission and was recruited along the line to Park Row. C. A. Stodell, who asked President Taft in Cooper Union some years ago what was going to be done to get the unemployed work and to whom the former President replied "God knows," was one of the first speakers.

"I sincerely hope," said Stodell, addressing the Mayor, "that you will offer a more practical solution than did Mr. Taft."

Stodell suggested that $50,000,000 ought to be spent by the city right away in public works and that that amount would very materially relieve the situation.

But we haven't the money," replied the Mayor. "It is pretty well known that New York City has been spending a lot of money on subways."

It was suggested that the Municipal Court Judges refuse to dispossess any more families until further notice. But no definite action was taken.

J. H. Coughlin of the Central Labor Union, Brooklyn, and J. G. Hallinan, superintendent of the Bowery Mission, also spoke, suggesting that unused city land be turned into truck farms.

The Mayor asked for more suggestions. None were forthcoming. Addressing his visitors the Mayor said: "This problem of the unemployed is one that must be met immediately. For that reason suggestions must be made right away. If any of you has any suggestions I want you to send them to the City Hall at once."

IRISH TWEEDS! ENGLISH WOOLENS!
SCOTCH WOOLENS!

THE STORY

In the past fourteen years, doing business on Washington Street, Boston, it has been my custom to clean up the stocks of the finest wholesale woolen houses. With my tremendous outlet, no stock has been too large for me. I sometimes have occasion to take almost the entire stock of a wholesale woolen merchant, it being understood that I am to pay cash for the same. All the wholesale woolen dealers know this, and most of my buys to-day are with the understanding that the names of the concerns which unload their merchandise are to be kept a secret.

A wholesale house in order to send drummers on the road must sample out their stock, and when a piece comes down to from ten to thirty yards the sample must be recalled in order to avoid duplicate selling. That means their best styles are withdrawn from stock, and when the season is fairly well advanced the accumulation of these ends is a source of worry to the wholesaler.

There's where I come in. I stand ready to take these at prices ranging from 25 to 75 per cent. off the original price. This is not a rare occurrence. I do this week in and week out, all the year through, subject to this restriction: That the name of the concern must not be advertised, and at certain times I am not allowed the privilege of using the name of the mill whose goods are thusly turned over to me.

One of Scotland's Largest Houses

Having an agency in Boston, turned over an immense portion of their stock, the ends running from thirty to sixty yards, to a small wholesaler. The party buying these goods could not handle this enormous stock and turned them over to me at practically what they cost. Goods worth from $2.50 to $4.00 a yard. I bought these goods for about 25 per cent. of their value. The great majority are Spring woollens, staple styles, herringbones, small checks, quiet gray effects, rough tweeds, homespun, fancy novelties; everything that might comprise an English or Scotch woolen house stock.

I cannot mention the Scotch concern who sold these goods. It is the only restriction placed on me, but I have them in my window, with the original tickets on them. I want all my old customers to flock in and get in on this buy. They are goods that would be sold by the high priced merchant tailor for prices ranging around $40.00.

There is only one price to be put on these goods during this sale—that is, suit or topcoat to order, $10.00. Anything in this range, irrespective of color or quality, suit or topcoat to order,

CARLTON TERRACE
BROADWAY & 100TH STREET

The touch of daintiness that is seen in everything here is accentuated at the afternoon tea by the little Japanese maids who preside at the tea service. But keep in mind that CARLTON TERRACE will always seek to be known as a place where kitchen is under intelligent direction.
